

Centacare Employment and Training

Centacare Ranks Among the Top Performers in Australia at the National Employment Services Association (NESA) Awards

Media Release Date: July 26th, 2007

Centacare's hard work and passion for helping others paid off this week at the National Employment Services Association (NESA) Awards, held in Queensland this year on the 24th of July 2007. Carli Carney, Employment Services Consultant with Centacare Employment and Training (CET) in Perth, was presented with the 2007 Employment Consultant of the Year Award.

At only 20 years old, Carli has worked with CET for 2 years and was promoted to the role of Team Leader a year ago. She demonstrates determination and compassion as she wholeheartedly tackles the challenge of helping the unemployed find work.

CET was also finalists in the category of Innovation and Service Excellence with their Midland Team of Employment Consultants. Richards Mining Service (RMS) was nominated by Centacare, and was also finalists in the category of Champion Employer of the Year.

For further information please contact Tanya Brown on (08) 9481 7018 or tbrown@centacarewa.com.au

Media contact:

Tanya Brown

(08)9481-7018